

assignment #10: persona part I

A persona is a character, or an aspect of a character. It's an identity that we project into the world. For this assignment, create a persona whose essence is the emotion you described in your last project; they should be defined by this emotion in some important way.

The remaining details are up to you, but you should create a rich description, including (but not limited to):

What's their name? Male or Female? How old are they? When do they live (past, present, future?) Where do they live? Where do they come from? Who is their family? Who are their friends? What do they do all day? How do they dress? What are their annoying habits? What are their pet peeves? What phrases and words do they overuse? What is their greatest happiness? What is their greatest sadness? What do they admire in people? What do they aspire to (if anything)? What else...?

WEEK I

Write a 4-page (minimum; double-spaced/typed) description of your character. It can be a straight description or a story, but it must provide a rich and complete portrait of the character.
